

REVOLUTIONIZE YOUR BUSINESS

Leverage a smart solution to keep up with rapidly changing client needs

Bindable's Enterprise platform is the complete (and fully-configurable) solution for helping trusted brands, insurance companies, and brokers capture new business opportunities fast. Whether it's product diversification, channel expansion, front-end template solutions, or virtual agency tools, we have it all.

CREATE A MULTI-PRODUCT, BRANDED DIGITAL EXPERIENCE

Our white label solution allows you to present clients with a fully customized, multi-product insurance site. Customers can quote and purchase choice auto and home insurance policies all in one online location. It's simple to generate additional commission revenue with little extra work.

SMOOTHLY MANAGE CUSTOMER RELATIONSHIPS

Policy Crusher™ is an agent's one-stop-shop to smoothly engage, interact, and sell new customers. Part CRM, part sales platform, all the information an agent needs about a lead is captured in a user-friendly interface that enables them to bind and cross-sell without the hassle of multiple logins.

GROW WITH ONGOING TECHNOLOGY AND MARKETING SUPPORT

Your dedicated account management team is always available to support implementation, launch, and ongoing relationship management. Regular feature updates ensure you have access to the latest tools to help your agents sell.

LOOKING TO IMPROVE YOUR SPONSORED DISTRIBUTION BUSINESS?

With Bindable's Enterprise platform, you're able to launch multiple channel partners, each with its own white label website and unique selection of products. Policy Crusher will receive and track leads from each of your partners, improving new commissions and client retention.

Enterprise is our end-to-end solution that allows carriers and companies to deploy soup-to-nuts alternative distribution channels by leveraging our virtual agency software, marketplace, and services. Learn how Bindable's Enterprise platform can revolutionize your business.
